

Day Treatment Criteria

- Diagnosis of a serious emotional disturbance within the past 6 months
- Mental health professional report stating it is medically necessary for the student to receive services with treatment recommendations
- FBA (Functional Behavior Assessment) within last 18 months
 - addresses behaviors of concerns
 - comprehensive
- BIP (Behavior Intervention Plan)
 - positive interventions identified
 - addresses behaviors in FBA
 - data available
- IEP (Individual Education Plan)
 - Goals relating to behaviors
 - Demonstrates services have been provided to offer a full array of services in a variety of settings
- Demonstrates ability to benefit from therapeutic services
- Willing to engage in psychiatric consultation if recommended by County Day Treatment staff
- Day Treatment would be able to meet the student's needs without a significant disruption to students within the program
- Parents are willing to commit to the process
- Placing district is willing to commit to the process, support the program, and support the student when re-entering the mainstream environment

If you have questions, need support, or are ready to refer a student contact:

Brandie Johnson 507-848-0122

* The Day Treatment programs would welcome referrals early in the process to know which students to plan for and assist you in the process.

Referral Process for Day Treatment Services

